A portion of Route 689 (Old Halifax Road) has been closed since August

GREENSVILLE COUNTY- Overnight, the bridge on Old Halifax Road (Route 689) over Falling Run Creek reopened after being closed almost three months for repair work. This project was completed on-time and under budget.

On August 12, the Virginia Department of Transportation's crews closed a section of Old Halifax Road for road improvements. The work included replacing existing culverts, construction of headwalls and minor road approach work.
