The Virginia Department of Transportation is responsible for building, maintaining and operating the state's roads, bridges and tunnels. VDOT maintains more than 57,300 miles of roads – the third largest state-maintained highway system in the country, just behind North Carolina and Texas. The Commonwealth Transportation Board guides the department's work. The Secretary of Transportation serves as chairman and the Commonwealth Transportation Commissioner as vice-chairman. The 17 board members are appointed by the Governor and approved by the General Assembly. This Biennial Report covers VDOT's progress from July 1, 2002 through June 30, 2004.
