Rosslyn, Virginia, I-66 Development Capacity Evaluation

Above: Development of a six-block mixed-use master plan yields between 3.3- and 4-million square feet of space. The concept incorporates a complete network of streets for access to the buildings.

Next page: Project phasing suggests that portions of the future square (indicated with a red ‘S’) be used for staging of active construction.

Development concept and design © 2012, Peter Katz, Consultant