This meeting is part of the Alternatives Development stage of the EIS process. During this stage, VDOT welcomes your input on the following important study elements:

- Purpose and Need: Recognize that the study corridor has capacity and roadway deficiencies that must be addressed.

- Existing and Future Traffic: Understand the stresses that the infrastructure must withstand in the future should no action be taken.

- Alternatives: Provide input on potential solutions that VDOT is considering that address the study needs.